PRESS RELEASE
ATLANTIC CAPE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

MAYS LANDING – The Atlantic Cape Community College Art Gallery, February / March, 2011

Painting in Ordinary Time ~Oils and Watercolors by Cheryl Knowles-Harrigan

The exhibit runs from February 28 – March 25, 2011. It is free and open to the public.

A reception to meet the artist will be held on Tuesday, March 8, from 4:30 to 7 PM with a Gallery Talk by the artist from 4:30 – 5 PM.

Knowles-Harrigan is a resident of Milmay, NJ and is originally from Gloucester County. She received a Bachelor’s Degree in Fine Arts from Philadelphia College of Art, a 4-Year Certificate in Painting (minor Printmaking) from Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts. Her MA is from Richard Stockton College of New Jersey. She is an Assistant Professor of Art at Atlantic Cape Community College where she has taught since 1992. Knowles-Harrigan, a member of various art organizations, is represented by La Bottega of Art Gallery in Millville’s Glasstown Arts District where she also maintains a studio at the Riverfront Renaissance Center for the Arts. Her work has been exhibited in numerous group and solo shows in Philadelphia and New Jersey. This exhibition will include those works created last spring while on sabbatical during her Mid-Career Fellowship at Princeton University.

“No matter the medium the primary goal of my painting is to communicate clearly to the viewer. When painting realistic subject matter, be it landscape, still-life, or figure, I seek to find the nuances of a subject that evoke a sensation of a mood, time, and space. Even though my paintings are quiet, they are rich in detail, light, and color thus capturing the illusion of an (extra)ordinary moment on a two dimensional surface.”

ACCC Art Gallery is located on ACCC’s Mays Landing Campus, 5100 Black Horse Pike, adjacent to the theater in C-building (C-125), parking lot #3. Gallery hours can be obtained by calling 609-343-5040 (press 1).
